

“The Constitutional Change We Need to Protect Our Priceless Natural Resources”

Tuesday, April 23
Midtown/Lake Ella
Saint Paul’s UMC
1700 N. Meridian Rd.

A U
T
H
O R

An Evening with Author
Maya K. Van Rossum
April 23, 5:30-7:30 pm

Door Prize ticket
w/ Potluck Dish!

*5:30 pm Doors Open
6 pm Potluck Dinner
($3 without dish)
6:30 pm Author’s Talk &
Book Signing*

FREE CHILDCARE with Reservation: [https:// www.saintpaulsumc.or g/ministries/children/
rsvp/](https://www.saintpaulsumc.org/ministries/children/rsvp/)

In 2013, Maya K. Van Rossum and her team won a watershed legal victory that not only protected Pennsylvania communities from ruthless frackers but affirmed the constitutional right of people in the state to a clean and healthy environment. Following this victory, van Rossum inaugurated the Green Amendment movement, dedicated to empowering every American community to mobilize for constitutional change. Learn how other states could benefit from a Green Amendment.

Sponsored by Saint Paul’s Creation
Care & www.forgottenations.earth

