

Order of Worship: Sunday, September 11, 2022
8:30 and 11:00 a.m.
14th Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome	Rev. Becky Rokitoski, Associate Pastor
Prelude	"
Lighting of the Candles	Acolytes
Call to Worship	Lynne Pennock and Congregation
God has gathered us to this place, where we hear those stories which show us what the kingdom of God is like.
God summons us to this place, where we can learn how to serve our God without reservation, or hesitation.
God will send us from this place, to tell others of God's hopes and dreams, so they, too, can choose to follow God.
	Thom Shuman:Lectionary Liturgies
Opening Hymn	"I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord" UMH 540
Affirmation of Faith	"Affirmation from Romans 8:35, 37-39" UMH 887
Leader: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation or distress, or persecution or famine, or nakedness or peril, or sword? People: No! In all things we are more than conquerors through the One who loved us. We are sure that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Thanks be to God! Amen.
Gloria Patri	UMH 70

Doxology	UMH 94
Scripture	Matthew 13:31-32 Lynne Pennock
31 He put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; 32 it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.'

Sermon

PLANT!

Rev. Dr. Latricia Scriven

Closing Hymn

“You Are the Seed”

UMH 583, vs. 1

You are the seed that will grow a new sprout;
You’re the a star that will shine in the night;
you are the yeast and a small grain of salt,
a beacon to glow in the dark.

You are the dawn that will bring a new day;
you’re the wheat that will bear golden grain;
you are a sting and a soft, gentle touch,
my witnesses where’er you go.

Go, my friends, go to the word, proclaiming love to all,
messengers of my forgiving peace, eternal love.

Be, my friends, a loyal witness from the dead I arose:
“Lo, I’ll be with you forever, till the end of the world.”

Sending Forth

Rev. Scriven

Postlude
